On behalf of the Alabama Hospice Organization's (AHO) Board of Directors and Conference Committee, I want to invite you to join those who provide or support hospice care in Alabama on October 11-13 for the AHO's 26th Annual Conference, "End of Life Care: Igniting Purpose with Passion". By popular request of last year's attendees, the conference will be held once again at Montgomery's Marriott Renaissance Hotel and Spa.

This event is AHO's primary outreach and educational opportunity for Alabama's key hospice decision makers, clinicians, and administrators. Because of this event's importance we have engaged national speakers to join in this event. We are excited to share with you a few of our faculty. Deborah Grassman who is well known for her work with veterans will be Monday's opening plenary speaker. Galen Miller, Executive Vice President of the National Hospice and Palliative Care will be sharing a national view of hospice care issues. Jenny Nolen, a nationally known humorist and motivational speaker will be the plenary speaker on Tuesday. Other nationally known speakers will include Dale Knee, President and CEO of Covenant Hospice who will be speaking on leadership and Rachel Hold-Weiss an attorney with Arant Fox who will address OIG concerns in relation to hospice care. Also, BC Farnham, a nationally celebrated speaker sponsored by National Hospice Sales Institute will join other faculty recognized in the state for their contributions to hospice care.

I hope that you'll join us as an exhibitor for this event. We have listened to the suggestions of last year's exhibitors. We will make every effort to implement as many of those suggestions as possible and try to assure that exhibitors are located so that the attendees will have access to you and your products.

Exhibit details are provided in this information for your review. AHO realizes that you have many opportunities to work with various healthcare providers and sincerely appreciate your participation. You may also be interested in sponsoring a portion of this conference. If so, this opportunity is available and detailed information is also included in this brochure.

Again, AHO is grateful for your ongoing support of hospice care in Alabama. I look forward to meeting you again in Montgomery!
